Australasian Gynaecological Endoscopy & Surgery Society Limited

improving gynaecological health

A leading education & training provider

- Train & support the next generation of gynaecologists
- Provide support for trainers
- Optimise AATP transparency, curriculum, exams & admin
- Provide world-class education for our members

Advocating for, & investing in, gynaecological health

- Work with stakeholders to represent our profession & improve gynaecological health
- Develop & promote position statements on issues impacting gynaecological health
- Provide contemporary, evidence-based resources to support
- Support cutting edge research
- Promote current research activity

A proactive, engaged membership

- Listen to the voice and needs of members
- Provide the information & support members need
- Provide a range of meetings, events & networking opportunities
- Engage with stakeholders to co-design solutions for specific issues

A progressive, outward looking & sustainable society

- Actively promote AGES, its activities & impact
- Diversify income & sponsorship streams
- Ensure environmental & social responsibility
- Build strong, mutually beneficial partnerships
- Optimise good governance
- Practice good governance & responsible financial stewardship

INCLUDE

INNOVATE

INSPIRE